

Maris Stella School
Standard-Based Yearly Plan
4th Grade

English Arts and Language
1st Quarter

Standard 1: Students will learn about nouns, which are words that name people, places, and things. They will learn how to use clear and extract nouns in their writing.

Topic: Nouns

Week	Performance Objectives	Performance Indicators	SA	TA
1	To identify nouns.	I can identify nouns.
	To use clear and exact nouns in writing.	I can use clear and exact nouns in writing.
	To identify singular and plural nouns.	I can identify singular and plural nouns.
	To spell plural nouns correctly.	I can spell plural nouns correctly.
	To use singular and plural nouns in writing.	I can use singular and plural nouns in writing.
	To identify the singular and plural forms of nouns that follow special rules.	I can identify the singular and plural forms of nouns that follow special rules.
	To spell the singular and plural forms of nouns that follow special rules.	I can spell the singular and plural forms of nouns that follow special rules.
	To use plural forms of nouns that follow special rules in writing.	I can use plural forms of nouns that follow special rules in writing.
2	To identify common and proper nouns.	I can identify common and proper nouns.
	To substitute proper nouns for common nouns	I can substitute proper nouns for common nouns
	To use common and proper nouns in writing.	I can use common and proper nouns in writing.
	To capitalize name of people.	I can capitalize name of people.
	To capitalize and punctuate initials and abbreviations of titles.	I can capitalize and punctuate initials and abbreviations of titles.
	To use initials and abbreviations of titles in writing.	I can use initials and abbreviations of titles in writing.
	To identify the name of a particular place, holiday, day of the week, or month as a proper noun.	I can identify the name of a particular place, holiday, day of the week, or month as a proper noun.
	To write sentences that contain names of places, holidays, days, and months.	I can write sentences that contain names of places, holidays, days, and months.

4 – Advanced Understanding of the Standard	3 – Meets the Standard	2 – Approaches the Standard	1 – Does Not Meet the Standard
--	------------------------	-----------------------------	--------------------------------

3	To identify abbreviations.	I can identify abbreviations.
	To understand that abbreviations may be used in some forms of writing.	I can understand that abbreviations may be used in some forms of writing.
	To write abbreviations for days, months, addresses, and times.	I can write abbreviations for days, months, addresses, and times.
3	To identify singular possessive nouns.	I can identify singular possessive nouns.
	To form singular possessive nouns.	I can form singular possessive nouns.
	To use singular possessive nouns in writing.	I can use singular possessive nouns in writing.
	To use a plural possessive noun to show ownership by more than one person or thing.	I can use a plural possessive noun to show ownership by more than one person or thing.
	To form plural possessive nouns.	I can form plural possessive nouns.
	To write sentences that contain plural possessive nouns.	I can write sentences that contain plural possessive nouns.

Standard 2: Students will learn about pronouns, which are words that take the place of nouns. They will also learn how to use pronouns in writing.

Topic: Pronouns

Week	Performance Objectives	Performance Indicators	SA	TA
4	To identify pronouns.	I can identify pronouns.
	To understand that pronouns are used to avoid repeating words.	I can understand that pronouns are used to avoid repeating words.
	To use pronouns in writing.	I can use pronouns in writing.
	To identify subject pronouns.	I can identify subject pronouns.
	To recognize that / is capitalized.	I can recognize that / is capitalized.
	To use subject pronouns in writing.	I can use subject pronouns in writing.
	To identify object pronouns.	I can identify object pronouns.
	To use object pronouns in writing.	I can use object pronouns in writing.
5	To use I and we as subject pronouns and me and us as object pronouns.	I can use I and we as subject pronouns and me and us as object pronouns.
	To recognize that we and us can be used before nouns in sentences.	I can recognize that we and us can be used before nouns in sentences.
	To use pronouns correctly in writing.	I can use pronouns correctly in writing.
	To identify possessive pronouns.	I can identify possessive pronouns.
	To use possessive pronouns in writing.	I can use possessive pronouns in writing.

4 – Advanced Understanding of the Standard	3 – Meets the Standard	2 – Approaches the Standard	1 – Does Not Meet the Standard
--	------------------------	-----------------------------	--------------------------------

	To identify contractions formed by joining made from pronoun and a verb	I can identify contractions formed by joining made from pronoun and a verb
	To use contractions made from pronouns in writing.	I can use contractions made from pronouns in writing.
Standard 3: Students will learn about adjectives, which describes nouns and pronouns. They will also learn how to use adjectives to paint vivid word pictures in their writing.
Topic: Adjectives
Week	Performance Objectives	Performance Indicators	SA	TA
6	To identify adjectives.	I can identify adjectives.
	To use clear and vivid adjectives in writing.	I can use clear and vivid adjectives in writing.
	To identify articles.	I can identify articles.
	To understand that articles are a special kind of adjectives.	I can understand that articles are a special kind of adjectives.
	To use articles in writing.	I can use articles in writing.
	To identify adjectives that follow linking verbs.	I can identify adjectives that follow linking verbs.
	To use commas to separate adjectives in a series.	I can use commas to separate adjectives in a series.
	To use adjectives that follow linking verbs in writing.	I can use adjectives that follow linking verbs in writing.
7	To recognize that er is added to some adjectives to compare two things.	I can recognize that er is added to some adjectives to compare two things.
	To recognize that est is added to more than two things.	I can recognize that est is added to more than two things.
	To use adjectives that compare in writing.	I can use adjectives that compare in writing.
	To recognize that more is used with some adjectives to compare two things.	I can recognize that more is used with some adjectives to compare two things.
	To recognize that most is used with some adjectives to compare more than two things.	I can recognize that most is used with some adjectives to compare more than two things.
	To make composition in writing using more and most with adjectives.	I can make composition in writing using more and most with adjectives.
	To identify special forms of adjectives.	I can identify special forms of adjectives.
	To make comparisons in writing and speaking using special forms of adjectives.	I can make comparisons in writing and speaking using special forms of adjectives.
END OF 1 ST QUARTER

4 – Advanced Understanding of the Standard	3 – Meets the Standard	2 – Approaches the Standard	1 – Does Not Meet the Standard
--	------------------------	-----------------------------	--------------------------------

English Arts and Language
2nd Quarter

Standard 1: Students will be able to learn about verbs and the forms of verbs.

Topic: Verbs

Week	Performance Objectives	Performance Indicators	SA	TA
1	To identify action verbs	I can identify action verbs
	To understand that simple predicate is an action verb.	I can understand that simple predicate is an action verb.
	To use strong action verbs in writing.	I can use strong action verbs in writing.
	To identify linking verbs.	I can identify linking verbs.
	To use linking verbs in writing.	I can use linking verbs in writing.
2	To identify main verbs and helping verbs.	I can identify main verbs and helping verbs.
	To use the helping verbs has, have, or had with main verbs that end in ed .	I can use the helping verbs has, have, or had with main verbs that end in ed.
	To use am, is, are, was, or were with main verbs that end in ing .	I can use am, is, are, was, or were with main verbs that end in ing.
	To use main verbs and helping verbs in writing.	I can use main verbs and helping verbs in writing.
3	To identify the tense of a verb.	I can identify the tense of a verb.
	To use verbs in the present, past, and future tense in writing.	I can use verbs in the present, past, and future tense in writing.
	To identify the present-tense verb that agrees with the subject.	I can identify the present-tense verb that agrees with the subject.
	To spell present-tense verbs.	I can spell present-tense verbs.
	To use present-tense verbs in writing.	I can use present-tense verbs in writing.
	To identify past-tense forms of verbs.	I can identify past-tense forms of verbs.
	To spell past-tense forms of verbs.	I can spell past-tense forms of verbs.
	To use past-tense forms of verbs in writing.	I can use past-tense forms of verbs in writing.
4	To identify the form of the verb that agrees with the subject.	I can identify the form of the verb that agrees with the subject.
	To understand that the linking verb be has singular and plural forms.	I can understand that the linking verb be has singular and plural forms.
	To use present-tense verbs and forms of the linking verb be in writing.	I can use present-tense verbs and forms of the linking verb be in writing.

4 – Advanced Understanding of the Standard

3 – Meets the Standard

2 – Approaches the Standard

1 – Does Not Meet the Standard

	To identify the correct past-tense form of an irregular verb.	I can identify the correct past-tense form of an irregular verb.
	To use past-tense forms of irregular verbs in writing.	I can use past-tense forms of irregular verbs in writing.
	To identify the correct past-tense form of an irregular verb.	I can identify the correct past-tense form of an irregular verb.
5	To understand that some irregular past-tense verbs follow patterns.	I can understand that some irregular past-tense verbs follow patterns.
	To use irregular past-tense verbs in writing.	I can use irregular past-tense verbs in writing.
	To add n't to certain linking or helping verbs to form contractions.	I can add n't to certain linking or helping verbs to form contractions.
	To understand that contractions often make speech or writing informal.	I can understand that contractions often make speech or writing informal.
	To use contractions correctly in writing.	I can use contractions correctly in writing.
	To identify direct quotation.	I can identify direct quotation.
	To understand that the word said does not always signal a direct quotation.	I can understand that the word said does not always signal a direct quotation.
	To capitalize and punctuate quotations correctly.	I can capitalize and punctuate quotations correctly.
	To use direct quotations in writing.	I can use direct quotations in writing.
Standard 2: Students will learn that adverbs is a word that describes a verb. Some adverbs tell when or where.
Topic: Adverbs
Week	Performance Objectives	Performance Indicators	SA	TA
6	To identify adverbs that describe when or where an action occurs.	I can identify adverbs that describe when or where an action occurs.
	To vary sentences by moving adverbs to different places.	I can vary sentences by moving adverbs to different places.
	To use adverbs in writing.	I can use adverbs in writing.
	To identify adverbs that tell how .	I can identify adverbs that tell how.
	To use clear and vivid adverbs in writing.	I can use clear and vivid adverbs in writing.
	To identify adverbs that compare.	I can identify adverbs that compare.
7	To recognize that more or most is not used with er or est .	I can recognize that more or most is not used with er or est.
	To use adverbs that compare in writing.	I can use adverbs that compare in writing.
	To identify negatives.	I can identify negatives.

4 – Advanced Understanding of the Standard	3 – Meets the Standard	2 – Approaches the Standard	1 – Does Not Meet the Standard
--	------------------------	-----------------------------	--------------------------------

	To understand that two negatives cannot be used in the same sentence.	I can understand that two negatives cannot be used in the same sentence.
8	To use negatives in writing.	I can use negatives in writing.
	To identify adverbs and adjectives.	I can identify adverbs and adjectives.
	To understand that good is an adjective and well is usually an adverb.	I can understand that good is an adjective and well is usually an adverb.
	To use adjectives and adverbs in writing.	I can use adjectives and adverbs in writing.

End of 2nd Quarter

English Arts and Language 3rd Quarter

Standard 1: Students will learn that adjective is a word that describes a noun or pronoun.

Topic: Adjectives

Week	Performance Objectives	Performance Indicators	SA	TA
1	To identify adjectives.	I can identify adjectives.
	To use clear and vivid adjectives in writing.	I can use clear and vivid adjectives in writing.
	To identify articles.	I can identify articles.
2	To understand that articles are a special kind of adjective.	I can understand that articles are a special kind of adjective.
	To use articles in writing.	I can use articles in writing.
	To identify adjectives that follow linking verbs.	I can identify adjectives that follow linking verbs.
3	To use commas to separate adjectives in a series.	I can use commas to separate adjectives in a series.
	To use adjectives that follow linking verbs in writing.	I can use adjectives that follow linking verbs in writing.
	To recognize that er is added to some adjectives to compare two things.	I can recognize that er is added to some adjectives to compare two things.
4	To recognize that est is added to some adjectives to compare more than two things.	I can recognize that est is added to some adjectives to compare more than two things.
	To use adjectives that compare in writing.	I can use adjectives that compare in writing.
	To recognize that more is used with some adjectives to compare two things.	I can recognize that more is used with some adjectives to compare two things.
	To make comparisons in writing using more and most with adjectives.	I can make comparisons in writing using more and most with adjectives.

4 – Advanced Understanding of the Standard

3 – Meets the Standard

2 – Approaches the Standard

1 – Does Not Meet the Standard

	To identify special forms of adjectives.	I can identify special forms of adjectives.
	To make comparisons in writing and speaking using special forms of adjectives.	I can make comparisons in writing and speaking using special forms of adjectives.
Standard 2: Students will learn about sentence that it is a group of words that expresses a complete thought.
Topic: Sentence
Week	Performance Objectives	Performance Indicators	SA	TA
6	To identify complete sentences.	I can identify complete sentences.
	To recognize that not all word groups are sentences.	I can recognize that not all word groups are sentences.
	To write clear sentences.	I can write clear sentences.
7	To identify declarative sentences.	I can identify declarative sentences.
	To identify interrogative sentences.	I can identify interrogative sentences.
	To recognize that some declarative sentences can be changed to interrogative sentences by changing word order.	I can recognize that some declarative sentences can be changed to interrogative sentences by changing word order.
	To use declarative and interrogative sentences in writing.	I can use declarative and interrogative sentences in writing.
	To identify imperative sentences.	I can identify imperative sentences.
	To identify exclamatory sentences.	I can identify exclamatory sentences.
	To use imperative and exclamatory sentences in writing.	I can use imperative and exclamatory sentences in writing.
8	To identify the subject of a sentence.	I can identify the subject of a sentence.
	To identify the predicate of a sentence.	I can identify the predicate of a sentence.
	To write sentences that contain subjects and predicates.	I can write sentences that contain subjects and predicates.
	To identify the complete and simple subject of a sentence.	I can identify the complete and simple subject of a sentence.
	To write sentences with complete and simple subjects.	I can write sentences with complete and simple subjects.
	To identify the complete and simple predicate of a sentence.	I can identify the complete and simple predicate of a sentence.
	To write sentences with complete and simple predicates.	I can write sentences with complete and simple predicates.
End of 3rd Quarter

4 – Advanced Understanding of the Standard	3 – Meets the Standard	2 – Approaches the Standard	1 – Does Not Meet the Standard
--	------------------------	-----------------------------	--------------------------------

English Arts and Language
4th Quarter

Standard 1: Students will be able to learn how to write their personal narrative by applying all the lessons that they have learned from first to fourth quarter.

Topic: Personal Narrative

Week	Performance Objective	Performance Indicators	SA	TA
1	To brainstorm and select a topic for a personal narrative.	I can brainstorm and select a topic for a personal narrative.
	To gather and organize facts for a personal narrative.	I can gather and organize facts for a personal narrative.
	To draft a personal narrative that has a beginning, middle, and an ending.	I can draft a personal narrative that has a beginning, middle, and an ending.
	To receive responses to writing.	I can receive responses to writing.
	To revise a personal narrative to include only important details.	I can revise a personal narrative to include only important details.
	To revise a personal narrative to make sure that events are in time order.	I can revise a personal narrative to make sure that events are in time order.
	To use Editor's Marks to revise a personal narrative.	I can use Editor's Marks to revise a personal narrative.
	To proofread a personal narrative for capitalization, punctuation, grammar, and spelling.	I can proofread a personal narrative for capitalization, punctuation, grammar, and spelling.
	To proofread a personal narrative for capitalization at the beginning of a sentence.	I can proofread a personal narrative for capitalization at the beginning of a sentence.
	To use Editor's Marks to proofread a personal narrative.	I can use Editor's Marks to proofread a personal narrative.
	To publish a personal narrative.	I can publish a personal narrative.

Standard 2: Students will be able to analyze what a student writer did to plan a paragraph of information and they will also draft a paragraph information of their own.

Topic: Paragraph Information

Week	Performance Objectives	Performance Indicators	SA	TA
	To brainstorm and select a topic for a paragraph of information.	I can brainstorm and select a topic for a paragraph of information.
	To gather and organize details for a paragraph of information.	I can gather and organize details for a paragraph of information.

4 – Advanced Understanding of the Standard

3 – Meets the Standard

2 – Approaches the Standard

1 – Does Not Meet the Standard

2	To draft a paragraph of information that has a topic sentence and supporting detail sentences.	I can draft a paragraph of information that has a topic sentence and supporting detail sentences.
	To draft a title for a paragraph of information.	I can draft a title for a paragraph of information.
	To receive responses to writing.	I can receive responses to writing.
	To revise a paragraph of information to delete details that do not keep to topic.	I can revise a paragraph of information to delete details that do not keep to topic.
	To revise a paragraph of information to check that it is organized correctly.	I can revise a paragraph of information to check that it is organized correctly.
	To revise a paragraph of information to add or substitute exact words.	I can revise a paragraph of information to add or substitute exact words.
	To use Editor's Marks to revise a paragraph of information.	I can use Editor's Marks to revise a paragraph of information.
	To proofread a paragraph of information for capitalization, punctuation, grammar, and spelling.	I can proofread a paragraph of information for capitalization, punctuation, grammar, and spelling.
	To proofread a paragraph of information for capitalization at the beginning of a sentence.	I can proofread a paragraph of information for capitalization at the beginning of a sentence.
	To use Editor's Marks to proofread a paragraph of information.	I can use Editor's Marks to proofread a paragraph of information.
	To publish a paragraph of information.	I can publish a paragraph of information.

Standard 3: Students will be able to learn and analyze how a student writer planned, to draft, revised, proofread, and published for their how-to paragraph.

Topic: How-to Paragraph

Week	Performance Objectives	Performance Indicators	SA	TA
3	To brainstorm and select a topic for a how-to paragraph.	I can brainstorm and select a topic for a how-to paragraph.
	To gather and organize facts for a how-to paragraph.	I can gather and organize facts for a how-to paragraph.
	To draft a how-to paragraph that begins by identifying the topic and the materials needed and that describes steps in the correct sequence.	I can draft a how-to paragraph that begins by identifying the topic and the materials needed and that describes steps in the correct sequence.
	To draft an appropriate title for a how-to paragraph.	I can draft an appropriate title for a how-to paragraph.
	To receive responses to writing.	I can receive responses to writing.
	To revise a how-to paragraph to be sure all information is included.	I can revise a how-to paragraph to be sure all information is included.

4 – Advanced Understanding of the Standard	3 – Meets the Standard	2 – Approaches the Standard	1 – Does Not Meet the Standard
--	------------------------	-----------------------------	--------------------------------

	To revise a how-to paragraph in the correct sequence.	I can revise a how-to paragraph in the correct sequence.
	To revise a how-to paragraph to combine sentences to avoid unnecessary words.	To revise a how-to paragraph to combine sentences to avoid unnecessary words.
	To use Editor's Marks to revise a how-to paragraph.	I can use Editor's Marks to revise a how-to paragraph.
	To proofread a how-to paragraph for capitalization, punctuation, grammar, and spelling.	I can proofread a how-to paragraph for capitalization, punctuation, grammar, and spelling.
	To proofread a how-to paragraph for commas that connect words in a series.	I can proofread a how-to paragraph for commas that connect words in a series.
	To use Editor's Marks to proofread a how-to paragraph.	I can use Editor's Marks to proofread a how-to paragraph.
	To publish a how-to paragraph.	I can publish a how-to paragraph.
Standard 4: Students will analyze how a student writer planned, draft, revised, proofread and published for a friendly letter.
Topic: Friendly Letter
Week	Performance Objectives	Performance Indicators	SA	TA
4	To brainstorm and select a topic for a friendly letter.	I can brainstorm and select a topic for a friendly letter.
	To gather and organize facts for a friendly letter.	I can gather and organize facts for a friendly letter.
	To draft a friendly letter that includes a heading, greeting, body, closing, and signature.	I can draft a friendly letter that includes a heading, greeting, body, closing, and signature.
	To include details that tell why in the body of a friendly letter.	I can include details that tell why in the body of a friendly letter.
	To receive responses to writing.	I can receive responses to writing.
	To revise a friendly letter so that causes and effects are clear.	I can revise a friendly letter so that causes and effects are clear.
	To revise a friendly letter to check that the sentences are in the correct order.	I can revise a friendly letter to check that the sentences are in the correct order.
	To revise a friendly letter to combine sentences to avoid unnecessary words.	I can revise a friendly letter to combine sentences to avoid unnecessary words.
	To use Editor's Marks to revise a friendly letter.	I can use Editor's Marks to revise a friendly letter.
	To proofread a friendly letter for capitalization, paragraph indentation, punctuation, grammar, and spelling.	I can proofread a friendly letter for capitalization, paragraph indentation, punctuation, grammar, and spelling.
	To proofread a friendly letter for commas in the heading, greeting, and closing.	I can proofread a friendly letter for commas in the heading, greeting, and closing.

4 – Advanced Understanding of the Standard	3 – Meets the Standard	2 – Approaches the Standard	1 – Does Not Meet the Standard
---	-------------------------------	------------------------------------	---------------------------------------

	To use Editors Marks to proofread a friendly letter.	I can use Editors Marks to proofread a friendly letter.
	To publish a friendly letter.	I can publish a friendly letter.
Standard 5: Students will learn how a student writer plans, draft, revised, proofread, and publish a fable.
Topic: Fable
Week	Performance Objectives	Performance indicators	SA	TA
5	To brainstorm and select a topic for a fable.	I can brainstorm and select a topic for a fable.
	To plan and organize details for a fable.	I can plan and organize details for a fable.
	To draft a fable that has characters, a setting, a plot, and a moral.	I can draft a fable that has characters, a setting, a plot, and a moral.
	To draft a fable with details that point to conclusions about the characters and their actions.	I can draft a fable with details that point to conclusions about the characters and their actions.
	To receive responses to writing.	I can receive responses to writing.
5	To revise a fable to check that all details are correct.	I can revise a fable to check that all details are correct.
	To revise a fable to cut wordy language.	I can revise a fable to cut wordy language.
	To use Editor's Marks to revise a fable.	To use Editor's Marks to revise a fable.
	To proofread a fable for a capitalization, punctuation, grammar, and spelling.	To proofread a fable for a capitalization, punctuation, grammar, and spelling.
	To proofread a fable for quotation marks and commas in dialogue.	To proofread a fable for quotation marks and commas in dialogue.
	To use Editor's Marks in proofread a fable.	To use Editor's Marks in proofread a fable.
	To publish a fable.	To publish a fable.
Standard 6: Students will be able to learn how a student writer plans, draft, revised, proofread and published for a descriptive paragraph
Topic: Descriptive Paragraph
Week	Performance Objectives	Performance Indicators	SA	TA
6	To brainstorm and select a topic for a descriptive paragraph.	I can brainstorm and select a topic for a descriptive paragraph.
	To gather and organize details for a descriptive paragraph.	I can gather and organize details for a descriptive paragraph.
	To draft a descriptive paragraph that appeals to the readers' senses.	I can draft a descriptive paragraph that appeals to the readers' senses.
	To use a simile or a metaphor to give a clear picture.	I can use a simile or a metaphor to give a clear picture.
	To receive responses to writing.	I can receive responses to writing.

4 – Advanced Understanding of the Standard	3 – Meets the Standard	2 – Approaches the Standard	1 – Does Not Meet the Standard
--	------------------------	-----------------------------	--------------------------------

	To revise a descriptive paragraph to see that it contains vivid pictures.	I can revise a descriptive paragraph to see that it contains vivid pictures.
	To receive responses to writing.	I can receive responses to writing.
	To revise a descriptive paragraph to see that it contains vivid details.	I can revise a descriptive paragraph to see that it contains vivid details.
	To revise a descriptive paragraph to put details in the correct order.	I can revise a descriptive paragraph to put details in the correct order.
	To revise a descriptive paragraph to avoid run-on sentences.	I can revise a descriptive paragraph to avoid run-on sentences.
	To use Editor's Marks to revise a descriptive paragraph.	I can use Editor's Marks to revise a descriptive paragraph.
	To proofread a descriptive paragraph for capitalization, punctuation, grammar and spelling.	I can proofread a descriptive paragraph for capitalization, punctuation, grammar and spelling.
	To use Editor's Marks to proofread a descriptive paragraph.	I can use Editor's Marks to proofread a descriptive paragraph.
	To publish a descriptive paragraph.	I can publish a descriptive paragraph.

Standard 7: Students will be able to learn about persuasive paragraph and how to brainstorm, gather information, draft, revise and publish.

Topic: Persuasive Paragraph

Week	Performance Objectives	Performance Indicators	SA	TA
7	To brainstorm and select a topic for a persuasive paragraph.	I can brainstorm and select a topic for a persuasive paragraph.
	To gather information and organize facts for a persuasive paragraph.	I can gather information and organize facts for a persuasive paragraph.
	To draft a persuasive paragraph that states an opinion, supports it with facts and examples, and tells the audience what action to take.	I can draft a persuasive paragraph that states an opinion, supports it with facts and examples, and tells the audience what action to take.
	To receive responses to writing.	I can receive responses to writing.
	To revise a persuasive paragraph by adding or deleting information.	I can revise a persuasive paragraph by adding or deleting information.
	To revise a persuasive paragraph by changing the order of sentences.	I can revise a persuasive paragraph by changing the order of sentences.
	To revise a persuasive paragraph by combining sentences.	I can revise a persuasive paragraph by combining sentences.

4 – Advanced Understanding of the Standard	3 – Meets the Standard	2 – Approaches the Standard	1 – Does Not Meet the Standard
--	------------------------	-----------------------------	--------------------------------

	To use Editor's Marks to revise a persuasive paragraph.	I can use Editor's Marks to revise a persuasive paragraph.
	To proofread a persuasive paragraph for capitalization, punctuation, grammar, and spelling.	I can proofread a persuasive paragraph for capitalization, punctuation, grammar, and spelling.
	To proofread a persuasive paragraph for correct adjective forms.	I can proofread a persuasive paragraph for correct adjective forms.
	To use Editor's Marks to proofread a persuasive paragraph.	I can use Editor's Marks to proofread a persuasive paragraph.
	To publish a persuasive paragraph.	I can publish a persuasive paragraph.
Standard 8: Students will learn about the parts of a research report. They will learn why they need to limit the topic of a report and how to group details in reports that they write.
Topic: Research Report
Week	Performance Objectives	Performance Indicators	SA	TA
8	To brainstorm and select a topic for a research report.	I can brainstorm and select a topic for a research report.
	To gather information for a report.	I can gather information for a report.
	To organize information for a report.	I can organize information for a report.
	To draft a multiple-paragraph research report that contains facts learned through research.	I can draft a multiple-paragraph research report that contains facts learned through research.
	To receive responses to writing.	I can receive responses to writing.
	To revise a research report by checking to see that it contains facts, not opinions.	I can revise a research report by checking to see that it contains facts, not opinions.
	To revise a research report by checking its organization.	I can revise a research report by checking its organization.
	To revise a research report by combining sentences to avoid wordiness.	I can revise a research report by combining sentences to avoid wordiness.
	To use Editor's Marks to revise a research report.	I can use Editor's Marks to revise a research report.
	To proofread a research report for capitalization, punctuation, grammar, and spelling.	I can proofread a research report for capitalization, punctuation, grammar, and spelling.
	To proofread a research report for correct use of commas in combined sentences.	I can proofread a research report for correct use of commas in combined sentences.
	To use Editor's Marks to proofread a research report.	I can use Editor's Marks to proofread a research report.
	To publish a research report.	I can publish a research report.

4 – Advanced Understanding of the Standard	3 – Meets the Standard	2 – Approaches the Standard	1 – Does Not Meet the Standard
--	------------------------	-----------------------------	--------------------------------

Standard 9: Students will learn how a student writer plans for a paragraphs of comparison and contrast.

Topic: Paragraphs of Comparison and Contrast

Week	Performance Objectives	Performance Indicators	SA	TA
9	To brainstorm and select a topic for paragraphs of comparison and contrast.	I can brainstorm and select a topic for paragraphs of comparison and contrast.
	To gather and organize information for paragraphs of comparison and contrast.	I can gather and organize information for paragraphs of comparison and contrast.
	To draft paragraph of comparison and contrast.	I can draft paragraph of comparison and contrast.
	To receive responses to writing.	I can receive responses to writing.
	To revise paragraphs of comparison and contrast nu adding or deleting information.	I can revise paragraphs of comparison and contrast nu adding or deleting information.
	To revise paragraphs of comparison and contrast by checking the organization.	I can revise paragraphs of comparison and contrast by checking the organization.
	To revise by replacing informal language with formal language.	I can revise by replacing informal language with formal language.
	To use Editor's Marks to revise paragraphs of comparison and contrast.	I can use Editor's Marks to revise paragraphs of comparison and contrast.
	To proofread paragraphs of comparison and contrast for capitalization, punctuation, grammar, and spelling.	I can proofread paragraphs of comparison and contrast for capitalization, punctuation, grammar, and spelling.
	To proofread paragraphs of comparison and contrast for agreement of subjects and verbs.	I can proofread paragraphs of comparison and contrast for agreement of subjects and verbs.
	To use Editor's Marks to proofread paragraphs of comparison and contrast.	I can use Editor's Marks to proofread paragraphs of comparison and contrast.
	To publish paragraphs of comparison and contrast.	I can publish paragraphs of comparison and contrast.

End of 4th Quarter

4 – Advanced Understanding of the Standard	3 – Meets the Standard	2 – Approaches the Standard	1 – Does Not Meet the Standard
--	------------------------	-----------------------------	--------------------------------